Welcome to The Easter Show 2012

Hosted by the Auckland Agricultural, Pastoral & Industrial Shows Board in conjunction with Auckland A&P Association

On behalf of the Auckland Agricultural Pastoral & Industrial Shows Board, it gives me great pleasure to welcome you all to the 2012 Easter Show.

In the promotion of excellence, competition has long been a cornerstone of Agricultural Development, and as a result New Zealand's reputation as a quality producer is well established in world markets.

Every year The Easter Show plays a very significant role in providing a forum for this development to continue and also provides a window of opportunity for the 'City' to view first hand the impressive range of champion animals.

I would like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank the Auckland Agricultural & Pastoral Association, the Management Team, the Judges, the competitors and the ever growing group of passionate volunteers for their dedication, and the countless hours that are necessary to ensure the success of this very special agricultural event.

This year we have introduced a new layout and brought many of the favourite entertainment packages of the past back and introduced some new innovative and exciting events for our guests to enjoy.

Regards,

David Scott
Chairman, Auckland Agricultural, Pastoral & Industrial Shows Board

PLEASE NOTE: Format and Standards will be consistent with Royal Show Rules and Regulations.

- ◆ Study and Research (The Enderby Cow Project)
- ◆ Bringing the Country to the Town (The show displays)

The first Auckland A&P Show was held in 1843 with animals judged in the Auckland Domain and other entries in the Royal Exchange Hotel. The Hotel site is commemorated by a bronze plaque beside the nearest rest seat to the corner of Shortland and Queen Streets, Auckland City.

Other venues used were Mechanics Bay, Otahuhu, Albert Barracks (now Albert Park), Ellerslie (around present racecourse entrance) and Potter's Paddock (now Alexandra Park Trotting Stadium). Winter shows were often held on the waterfront wharves in the years 1907-1937.

The present site was first leased from the Cornwall Park Trust in 1915 and became Auckland Showgrounds. The Grandstand was purchased from the Papakura Rugby Club in 1935 and is the permanent home of the Auckland Agricultural and Pastoral Association.

The Association has also gone by the name; Auckland Agricultural and Horticultural Society (1843), Auckland & New Ulster Agricultural and Horticultural Society (1850), Otahuhu Agricultural Society (1854), New Zealand Agricultural Society (1862). The Association finally became the Auckland Agricultural & Pastoral Association in 1877 and, apart from breaks due to financial depressions and wartime, an annual show has been assembled every year since 1843. The first Easter Show was held in 1953 and "Royal" show status was granted in 1989.

Applications are welcomed from all interested in promoting the aims of the Association
