Rules and conditions

1. Red tagged helmets and sensible footwear are compulsory and must be worn at all times when mounted. Jackets and braiding optional. By all means wear what is safe, clean and comfortable, or practice braiding and turnout – it is completely up to you what you feel comfortable in. Snaffle bits only.
2. Competitors compete at their own risk and must supervise and control their animals at all times and shall be liable for any hazards created or accident, illness or damage caused by the action of themselves or their animals while at Glenuku Equine.
3. Any abuse towards officials, volunteers, competitors, spectators and horses will not be tolerated and instigators will be asked to leave Glenuku Equine.
4. No stallions – no excuses, no exceptions. No Dogs – no excuses, no exceptions. No smoking – no excuses, no exceptions. Any breach of these rules and you will be asked to leave Glenuku Equine.
5. Any protests must be made in writing within 30 minutes of the completion of the judging of the specific class, signed by the protestor and delivered to the show secretary. The protestor shall at the time of making such protest, lodge the sum of $50 cash (no cheques) which shall be forfeited to the organising committee should the protest be considered frivolous or vexatious. All protests shall be determined by the organising committee whose decision shall be absolutely final.
6. Refunds only if scratching is received before close of entries. Admin fee is not refundable.
7. The draw will be emailed to you, and available on Glenuku Equine's Facebook page. Correct payment must be received into our bank account before you will be placed in the draw. Please enter lead rein, or non-lead rein – not both.
8. Horses/ponies deemed by a judge, steward or Glenuku Equine official to be dangerous, unruly or out of control will be asked to leave Glenuku Equine.
9. Any rider injured in a fall or otherwise must present to a Glenuku Equine official for first aid assessment before continuing to ride or compete.
10. We thank you in advance for picking up your poo and hay and putting it in the muck bins provided or taking it home with you.
