DEFINITIONS:

PLEASURE MOUNTS: are those animals which do not fit the criteria for a show horse/pony. This may be due to colour, conformation, breed or aging. Although they will not have the beauty queen style of a show animal they will in their own right be a pleasure to own and ride. Animals competing may be any colour or breed. They must not have won in the open show ring at an A&P show (excluding the pleasure section). If the exhibit is of show type it belongs in the show section, even if it is inexperienced for it is still a show animal.

RIDING HORSES: are those animals who do not fit the criteria of the hack, park hack or hunter sections, but still shows quality in conformation.

SHOW HORSE/PONIES: are therefore elegant, well mannered and free moving horses, being sound in wind and limb. They should be well presented and give the appearance of quality.

CHAMPION OF CHAMPIONS SECTIONS:

This section honours the exhibits who have been crowned Champion or Reserve champions in the previous year. Qualification is by winning one Championship Or 2 reserve champion ribbons at any ridden show since February 10th 2009 up to and including this years event. (you can qualify on the day)

The animals are required to perform an individual workout and points will be awarded:

Show exhibits: conformation 50, paces and manners 30 and general appearance 20

Pleasure exhibits: conformation 40, paces and manners 40 and general appearance 20

The judges are changed from morning to afternoon classes. (with possible exceptions in the pleasure section)

ENTRY FEE $10 per mount.

BRUCE CHARLES CLARKE MEMORIAL TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP:

This is a new event for the show and is proudly sponsored by Anita Roberts (nee Clarke) to honour her late father, Bruce Charles Clarke.

Teams consist of three different riders on three different mounts. Teams may comprise one pony and two horses or 2 ponies and one horse. They may compete in any section and the best 5 scores per mount (excluding any 'special' awards) will count toward the team total, plus any open championships. This ensures a level playing field for all teams. Sashes to 5th place and medals to 3rd place.

Points: Champion 5 points Reserve champion 3 points

First 10points, second 7 points, third 5 points, fourth 3 points

The points will be collated during the morning classes and the result will be given before the lunch break.

Entry $15 per team, or individual riders can pay $5 to be allocated into a team selected at random.

THE BOB LINTON CHAMPION RIDER OF THE SHOW:

This event is in memory of Bob Linton and is proudly sponsored by Megan Hawkins (nee Linton).

Every rider who wins their rider class (excluding lead rein, first year ridden and junior pleasure) is eligible to enter. Riders are worked individually and the rider scoring the highest points is the winner. Sashes to 6th

THE ALANA CLAPPERTON CHAMPION JUNIOR RIDER OF THE SHOW:

This is a new event for 2010 and honours the achievements of Alana Clapperton. The rider class winners in the junior pleasure, lead rein and first ridden are all eligible. An individual workout will be set and the rider scoring the highest points will be the winner. Sashes to 6th.

THE QUALITY PRESENTATIONS SPORTSMANSHIP SASH:

This award is made to a rider who exemplifies the very best in gracious sportsmanlike behaviour and shows a sense of camaraderie with their fellow competitors. The decision is made by all judges on the day.

THE ASCOT SASH: These sashes are awarded to the winners of each of the Smartest on Parade classes
