

Amateur Tour

EF $200 Block Fee

Total Prize Pool $3480

First Class: 1.10m A2 Art 238.2.1

Second Class: 1.15m 2 Phase Art 274.1.5.2

Championship Class: 1.20m AM5 Art 238.2.2

This class is open to riders 18 years and over as of the first day of the show who have not competed higher than 1.30m in the current season.

The Amateur Tour is being run as three separate classes. Your entry fee covers all 3 classes, you can choose to ride in all 3, or just one. It is your choice; however, the entry fee remains the same.

Pony Tour

EF $200 Block Fee

Total Prize Pool $2400

First Class: Speed Class 1.15m A2 Art 238.2.1

Final Class: Pony Grand Prix 1.20 – 1.25m AM5 Art 261.5.1.2

Pony riders do not need to qualify for the Grand Prix, but they do have to start in the speed class.

The riders in the final will ride in reverse order from the results of the speed class. No faults will be carried through from the speed class.

Copper Tour

EF $200 Block Fee

Total Prize Pool $4250

Qualifying Class 1: 1.15m 2 Phase Art 274.1.5.2

Qualifying Class 2: 1.15m A2 Art 238.2.1

Final: 1.20m AM5 Art 238.2.2 (Top 40)

You do not have to start in both qualifiers if you do not wish to.

The top 25 riders from qualifier one and the top 15 unqualified riders from qualifier two will qualify for the final.

If a qualified combination is not going to compete in the final, they will not be replaced by another combination.

The riders in the final will ride in reverse order from the results of the qualifying classes. No faults will be carried through from the previous classes.

Bronze Tour

EF $200 Block Fee

Total Prize Pool $5800

Qualifying Class 1: 1.25m 2 Phase Art 274.1.5.2

Qualifying Class 2: 1.25m A2 Art 238.2.1

Final: 1.30m AM5 Art 238.2.2 (Top 40)

You do not have to start in both qualifiers if you do not wish to.

The top 25 riders from qualifier one and the top 15 unqualified riders from qualifier two will qualify for the final.

If a qualified combination is not going to compete in the final, they will not be replaced by another combination.

The riders in the final will ride in reverse order from the results of the qualifying classes. No faults will be carried through from the previous classes.

Silver Tour

EF $400 Block Fee

Total Prize Pool $15,100

Qualifying Class 1: 1.35m Special 2 Phase Art 274.2.5.1

Qualifying Class 2: 1.35m A2 Art 238.2.1

Final: 1.40m AM5 Art 238.2.2 (Top 30)

You do not have to start in both qualifiers if you do not wish to.

The top 20 riders from qualifier one and the top 10 unqualified riders from qualifier two will qualify for the final.

If a qualified combination is not going to compete in the final, they will not be replaced by another combination.

The riders in the final will ride in reverse order from the results of the qualifying classes. No faults will be carried through from the previous classes.

Gold Tour

EF $1000 Block Fee

Total Prize Pool $42,900

Qualifying Class 1: 1.40m Special 2 Phase Art 274.2.5.1

Qualifying Class 2: 1.40m A2 Art 238.2.1

Final: 1.45m Art 273 3.3.2, 273 4.3, 273 2.2 (Top 30 maximum)

Minimum of top 8 riders to come back for the jump off, or all clears.

You do not have to start in both qualifiers if you do not wish to.

The top 20 riders from qualifier one and the top 10 unqualified riders from qualifier two will qualify for the final.

If a qualified combination is not going to compete in the final, they will not be replaced by another combination.

The riders in the final will ride in reverse order from the results of the qualifying classes. No faults will be carried through from the previous classes.

All clear rounds, or a minimum of the top 8 riders will come back for the jump off.